2. Claims 9 and 10 are allowed.

3. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: No prior art of record discloses or fairly suggests a page lifting device comprising two page lifter portions, wherein each page lifter portions have an inner edge towards the hinge, and an outermost edge away from the hinge; an attaching member having a height of the hinge above the binding-ring base cover; wherein the page lifting device is made from a material where a thin section of the material forms a flexure acting as the hinge; wherein the attaching member is fixedly attached to the binding-ring base cover with either a pressure sensitive adhesive with a peel-off, or with a foam tape having pressure sensitive adhesive with a peel-off protective cover.

Beyer and Zabielski reference are the closest references to read on applicant's invention. However, Beyer and Zabielski do not disclose wherein the attaching member is fixedly attached to the binding-ring base cover with a either a pressure sensitive adhesive with a peel-off, or a foam tape with a peel-off protective cover. Beyer and Zabielski do not disclose any attachments to binding-ring base cover.
